Re: Arbitration / Payment Demand
Detention, Demurrage, and Other Charges Owed to Hanjin Shipping, Inc.
Outstanding Amount: $482,573.00

To Barthco International, Inc. and Whom It May Concern:

We are attorneys for Hanjin Shipping Co., Ltd. ("Hanjin Shipping") and Jin-Han Kim, the Trustee of Hanjin Shipping.

Hanjin Shipping's records indicate that Barthco International, Inc. presently owes $482,573.00 in unpaid detention and demurrage from shipments carried and delivered by Hanjin Shipping through 2016. Hanjin Shipping has fully performed all duties and obligations required of it for the said shipments, and Barthco International, Inc. has received the said shipments, together with invoices tendered for payment, without objection. Furthermore, the detention and demurrage, together with other incidental charges incurred by Hanjin Shipping, were incurred as part of the said shipments.

We attach copies of the outstanding invoices which previously were submitted to you for payment. The said shipments and disputes are governed by Service Contract No. AEF166288 between Hanjin and Barthco International, Inc. on 8/15/2016. The Service Contract provides, in relevant part, for resolution of disputes by arbitration in New York.

We thus propose the appointment of David W. Martowski to act as the sole arbitrator for this dispute. Hanjin Shipping will seek payment in the arbitration of the outstanding amounts owed. For information and reference, Mr. Martowski's CV is available for viewing at:
